Scripture Study

No, O people, the Lord has told you what is good, and this is what he requires of you: to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God. Micah 6:8

Question 1: What does it practically look like for a young adult today to "walk humbly with your God"?

Question 2: If you used Micah 6:8 as a checklist for your daily life, which of the three (justice, mercy, humility) do you think you need to grow in most and why?

Then God looked over all he had made, and he saw that it was very good! And evening passed and morning came, marking the sixth day. Genesis 1:31

Question 3: Why do you think God chose to pause and see his creation before declaring it "very good"? What does that teach us about the value of reflection?

Question 4: How can you build a rhythm of evaluation into your own life (school, work, relationships, or ministry) so that you do not just "do" but also "see" and celebrate what is good?

> Project Milestone
> Evaluate. By the end of the lesson, I will have completed the evaluation form and reflected on the project as a whole.
